

Jefferson City Trail Users

Notes from the June 15, 2022 Meeting
Last Flight Brewing Co.

Attending: Amy Hedrick, Lori Henley, Celeste Koon, Kathleen Henley, Janeen Osborne, Kevin Schwartz, and David Crenshaw

1. Kathleen Henley reported the Treasury has a balance of $179.93. Thanks to all who have paid the annual $15 membership dues.
2. There are currently 593 members in the Facebook group.
3. No additional Get Acquainted hikes were schedule due to the weather.
4. Kevin will draw the names for the prizes of the Trails Less Traveled Challenge. This will probably be done on August 1. Celeste will send Kevin a list of the prizes, and then call people and deliver the prizes.
5. Celeste and Lori will do some additional weed eating at Frog Hollow. City staff are working on the trails at Binder. There was quite a bit of discussion about fixing some perennial muddy places on the Binder green loop.
6. Amy made numerous improvements to the website as members had requested, but was unable to set up a forum. Members are encouraged to review the updated website and make further suggestions as necessary.
7. The group decided to send a letter to Jefferson City Public Works encouraging them to make improvements at the crosswalk on Southwest Blvd. near Schnucks and the one on the Dix Road connector by the Jefferson Bank gazebo. The letter will also mention that improvements are needed at Stadium and Edgewood.
8. The committee working on the pictures to be sold at the fundraiser in September will meet at 2:00 pm on June 26 to look at the assortment of frames that have been collected. Several suggestions and good ideas were mentioned for the coming Fall Festival in September where the pictures will be sold.
9. The group discussed additional ways to recognize JC Parks' contribution to trails and greenways.
10. The next meeting will be July 27, 2022 at 5:00 pm. The meeting will be at Last Flight Brewing Co.
